A DOUBLE-BARRELED DEMOCRATIC SHOT.

President Cleveland has not during his entire term entered a department building. One might suppose that he did not like to look at republican officials holding places under a democratic administration.

A democrat would hardly suppose that the foregoing paragraph is the product of a democratic paper, but it is, nevertheless, and is from that Bourbon sheet, the Louisville Courier-Journal, whose editor reported the last democratic national platform. And a democrat would hardly suppose that there was any truth in the charge made by the Courier-Journal. But it is true to the letter so far as Mr. Cleveland has persistently absented himself from the department buildings.

A few weeks ago a charge was made by a Washington paper, and not a republican paper either, that during the four years Cleveland has been in Washington, he has never called at a department belonging to any member of his cabinet. This would seem to be an improbability, for it would seem to be a disinterestedness in department matters never before shown by any other president. Other presidents frequently went to the various departments, consulted with their secretaries, shook hands with the chief clerks, and generally made themselves agreeable. But the theory of Cleveland's strange conduct in regard to the various departments of the government, is true. His autocratic nature and his supreme selfishness made it impossible for him to take any interest in the work of his cabinet. This is the democratic explanation of it.

THE COUNTY OPTION LAW.

There is considerable interest taken in the county option bill which is now before the legislature, and the following intelligent synopsis of the proposed law will be of value to the readers of the Gazette:

Section 1 of the bill provides that whenever any number of the qualified electors of any county equal to or more than ten percent of the number of votes cast at the last general election for governor shall present to the county judge a petition in writing signed by them, praying that the electors of the county may be licensed to deal in spirits, malt, or intoxicating liquors or drinks as a beverage, it shall be the duty of the judge, forthwith to make an order providing that such question shall be submitted to the voters of the county on the first Tuesday of April next succeeding the date of said order. Notice shall be given as in judicial elections. The expense of the notice shall be borne by the county.

Section 3 provides that the ballots on the question shall be deposited in a separate box and each shall contain the words "for license" or "against license." If the majority of the votes shall be against license then it shall be unlawful for any person to deal in liquors within the county, in any quantity whatever and no license for such dealings shall be granted in the county. Should a majority of the votes in the county be for license, it is still made unlawful to deal in liquors in any town, village or city within the county which at the election cast a majority of votes against license, and any license granted contrary to this provision shall be null and void.

THE CAUSE OF THE DECLINE.

The democratic majority down in poor old Missouri has again been decreased by 250. At this rate Missouri will be out of the woods before the next presidential election and take her place along with the two Dakotas, Washington, and Montana in the republican column, which will make that inevitable for another generation. —Inter Ocean

It is alarming to the democratic leaders to see how the democratic majority of Missouri is dwindling down. There was a time when the state gave 60,000 democratic majority; but now it is becoming a question whether the democrats have any majority at all; and so the democrats "have called a council of war to see if they can devise any means to check this tendency to republicanism. It is doubtful if they can stop manifest destiny."

It is not difficult to find a reason for the remarkable change in the vote of Missouri. The influence of slavery is rapidly fading in the state. Northern people are making settlements there and are investing their capital in various enterprises. Very nearly one-half of the white population of Missouri were born in the states, chiefly in the north. And then, it is said that "of every five men who move to that state it is safe to say that three are republicans." There are plenty of good farming lands in Missouri, and these are being bought very largely by northern republicans. Whenever a state begins to become agriculturally, it is sure to swell the republican vote. There is not a single exception to this in the United States.

It seems very strange that in this year of our Lord an item like this should be found in the public prints: "An outrage as atrocious as that of which Charles Sumner was the victim in the United States senate chamber—except that not great physical injury was caused—occurred at a session of a special senate committee appointed to consider alleged Indian frauds. Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, is chairman of the committee, and Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is one of its members. At the close of a wordy encounter between them, Blackburn, who is a brawny Kentuckian, knocked or dragged Senator Chandler, a small, frail man, from his chair, jammed him against the wall, bruising and pounding him until he became helpless. Blackburn was finally dragged away from his victim, who is seriously ill from nervous prostration. The country will take notice of this shameful and brutal assault."

It is difficult to keep up with current knowledge nowadays; as for instance, one to reconceive to accept some physician's statement that a hot bath is good for typhoid fever than he comes across another physician's statement that a cold bath is a sovereign remedy for it. The latter remedy is suggested by Dr. Simon Baruch, of New York, in the Medical Record. He says that it has been very successful in the German military hospital.

There is quite a little boom for the "Church of the Covenant"—Presbyterian—in Washington. General Harrison and Mr. Blaine have engaged preachers there, and following them are the Rev. Dr. Scott, "General Harrison's father-in-law, Senators Cullom, Dawes, and Hale, Justices Matthews and Strong, General Anson G. McCook, and Colonel John Hay.

When the members of the Dakota legislature heard the territorial bill had passed, they all joined in singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." The jealousy of the Sioux City Journal makes it remark that the most remarkable thing about it is that the members knew how. The journal sees as to forget that there are 6000 school houses in Dakota.

Mr. Edgerton, who was removed from the civil service commission, says he was removed because he called Cleveland a mugwump. Well, that was intense provocation. There are very few men, not even Grover Cleveland, that could bear with an imposture, such an insult as that. No wonder Edgerton went.

John S. Bell, superintendent of the United States secret service, will have charge of the arrangements for the safe conveyance of General Harrison and family to Washington. He is an expert in this kind of business.

The democratic party is a little wiser that it was four years ago, but in a worse condition. It has paid a high price for its experience. The democrats will never get back that which they invested in Grover.

One more week of Grover, and then the bother will all be over.

Let quality, not quantity, be the test of a medicine. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the concentrated extract of the best and purest ingredients. Medical men everywhere recommend it as the surest and most economical blood medicine in the market.

MUSICAL MELANGE.

Eugene Wetherill's will has been probated. He left $500,000, all to his wife, Emma Abbott.

Forty-one new Italian operas were produced on the continent last year. One of them achieved success.

Dr. Francis Henjer, Ph. D., the musical critic of the London Times, is dead. He was a firm believer in Wagner's music and had written several opera librettos for English composers.

Fred C. Packard, the American tenor, who has been singing with the Carl Rosa opera company in England for half a dozen years past, has been in Boston on a visit, and Manager Foster of the Ideal opera company engaged him for the balance of the season.

Nevada has had, as the Americans say, a fine time in Rome. She was offered a fine money and then refused it to go to South America, where she is to receive 250 a night for forty nights. All the expenses of herself, her husband, the baby, the nurse and her femme de chambre will be paid.

A recent performance of "L'Africain" at Buda Pesth is appropriately described by Le Menestrel as a reminiscence of the tower of Babel, inasmuch as the part of Neluco was sung in French and that of Selika in Italian, while the rest of the artists sang in German and the chorus in Hungarian.

The Kellogg opera company is in hot water. Strakos says the company took his money and then deserted him and his wife, and the company says "it's no such thing." Meantime the company has been singing in Detroit, and probably Cleveland, without Kellogg, and things are much muddled.

Manager Fred Polham announces that in the coming spring he will make a tour of the West with the Levy opera and concert company, composed of Jules Levy, soprano; Miss Katharine MacNeil, contralto; Sig. Enrico Battistini, Sig. Bravura, baritone; Mons. Baudet. The tour will begin in Syracuse Feb. 13.

Emma Abbott has secured another first-class church advertisement. Her tenor, Montegriffo, sang in an Episcopal church at Memphis and the rector publicly thanked him. The other Protestant preachers formed a league and issued a fiery denunciation of Abbott, Montegriffo, the Episcopal preacher, et al., and forthwith the Abbott company drew immense audiences. Of course.

FOR CALIFORNIA.

In addition to first class round trip tickets to California and Pacific Coast points which are on sale daily, the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company has arranged a series of personally conducted one way second class excursions to California. Persons joining these excursions will be provided with a charge with completely furnished berths, including mattresses, curtains, blankets, pillows, etc. in new tourist sleeping cars which will run through without change from Chicago to San Francisco and Los Angeles, in charge of experienced conductors and porters the entire distance. The cost of a second class ticket covers every necessary expense except meals. For tickets and full particulars regarding rates and dates on which excursions start, apply to Agents of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

INDIANAPOLIS FAREWELL.

HARRISON EN ROUTE TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

Touching Remarks of the President-Elect at the Indiana Home—Discovered—On for Washington.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 25.—Gen. Harrison's last Sabbath at home before his departure to assume the presidency was a notable day to the pastor and members of his church—the First Presbyterian. The church was filled Sunday morning beyond its ordinary seating capacity and a special musical program was a feature of the service. The pastor, Mr. L. Haines, spoke from the words: "Though He be not far from every one of us; for in Him we live and move and have our being," of the constant presence of God.

At the conclusion of his sermon proper he spoke as follows: "Before these services close I can not but bear in mind that to-day is a prominent day in the thoughts of all—the fact that this is the last service prior to the departure from among us of one who for more than a third of a century has been identified with this Christian church as a member and an officer. When new members have entered our communion we bid them welcome in the name of God. Certainly it is not unfitting, when long-tried and honored members go out for a season, to bid them farewell with a sense of loss and a feeling of influence and responsibility elsewhere, that we should tender to them our heartfelt assurance of God's love.

"I am sure it would be a grief to the members of this church, were it to fail to break through the silence that has characterized this pulpit in its relation to the peculiar excitement of the last eight months, and permit you, sir, who have been so long and so intimately associated with us here in Christian life and work, to go out without one word expressive of our earnest affection, wish and prayer. This is not the place nor the time for words of congratulation, however sincere. Our sense of personal esteem and gratification over your elevation to the chief magistracy of the nation is to-day overshadowed by the necessity of separation, and especially of the sense of the serious, the solemn responsibilities that are to be laid upon you.

"We have learned to believe in you—in your personal integrity, in your tested, established Christian character. Character is superior to achievement. It is itself the highest achievement. Office without character is nothing. We joy in the anticipation that you will exhibit to the people of this nation that crowning glory of character, pure in its purpose, catholic in its spirit, undeviating in its loyalty to duty and to God.

"You remember that you are called not only to be an example to a leader to the people of this land. When Moses, who as an organizer and statesman stands without a peer in history, received his commission from Jehovah, he was told to lead the people of Israel, guiding you for the coming tasks, guarding you from threatening perils, and enabling you to lead this great American nation forward to higher conditions of freedom and righteousness.

"In the stormy days of our civil war we recall that in the charge on the field of battle once and again you led the ranks forward and planted the flag of our country upon the ramparts gallantly won. Now as the leader and commander of over three score millions of people, we pray Almighty God to give you the strength and courage and wisdom to lead these hosts forward in the paths of justice and truth until our standard shall be planted on the height of a God-honoring and therefore enduring prosperity.

We know that you have set before you as the pole-star of your public life—to use your own words—"a patriotic purpose to promote the true glory of our country and the highest good of our people." We are glad in the belief that the righteous hopes inspired by your own life among us will be justified in days to come. We rejoice in the confident expectation that the coming quadrennium will be marked by priceless blessings from the Father of Mercies conferred upon our beloved country through your character and administration.

"I speak for all the members of this church when I say that we will hold you and yours tenderly in our hearts and we will remember you at the throne of grace in our prayers, ever beseeching that God of nations unto whom our fathers looked and were lighted to guide you by His counsels, to shield you by His Providence, to enrich you with His wisdom, and to make you perfect in every good work to do His will."

Dr. Haines during the delivery of this farewell tribute spoke with much feeling and had the close attention of his large audience. Gen. Harrison sat with head slightly bowed as though greatly affected by the solemnity of the occasion; as also were Mrs. McKee and Mrs. McKee. At the conclusion of his remarks the pastor closed the services with a prayer for the President-elect and his family.

Just before dismissing the congregation Dr. Haines asked them all to rise and join in singing "Our Native Home" to the tune of "America," and the words of the hymn were sung with so much pathos that hundreds of the audience were affected to tears and both Gen. and Mrs. Harrison were visibly affected.

As the congregation passed out all the members of the church and many who were not members flocked over to where Gen. and Mrs. Harrison were standing near the side entrance and bade them good by. The occasion was one that called forth all the feelings of the General and his old associates and many of the farewells were extended in a silent handclasp. The General and Mrs. Harrison walked up Pennsylvania avenue en route to this home, stopping on the way at Dr. Haines' residence to say a final good-by to their pastor and his family. During the afternoon and evening many neighbors and friends called to bid them farewell and "goodspeed."

The General will leave his home at 2:15 p. m., escorted by Gov. Hovey, Mayor Denny, and other distinguished citizens. When their carriage reaches the corner of Ohio and Pennsylvania streets it will be met by an escort of 400 or more veterans of George H. Thomas and escorted to the depot.

THE MEXICAN MISSION.

Walker Blaine Likely to Succeed Minister Bragg.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 25.—Much interest is felt here in the question of the successor to United States Minister Bragg. It is believed that either Walker Blaine or Judge Morgan of Louisiana, now residing in New York, will be appointed. Judge Morgan made a fine record here during his five years' incumbency of the mission. He was vigorous in maintaining American rights, but notwithstanding his boldness and blunt ways he made a good impression on the government and had great influence. Walker Blaine, a son of his father, would not be regarded here as the equivalent of the Maine statesman himself, but would be well received.

EXCEEDED THEIR ORDERS.

Overzealous German Agents in Samoa—Press Comment.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—The Berlin Post prints an article from the West Zeitung on the Samoa question, and remarks that in many respects the views therein taken are correct. The article in question rejects the supposition that the German agents in Samoa were overzealous and went to terms with America owing to Germany's position in regard to France, and says:

"Neither under the present nor under any circumstances would Germany have risked a rupture with America for such a bagatelle. The Samoan white book shows that whenever the actions of German officials were repudiated it was because the officials acted contrary to international law. The press criticisms evoked by the white book were almost entirely directed against the excesses of the West Zeitung on the Samoa question, and remarks that in many respects the views therein taken are correct. The article in question rejects the supposition that the German agents in Samoa were overzealous and went to terms with America owing to Germany's position in regard to France, and says:

"Whether Matafua's people were led by an American or not is of no consequence, as the American government can not be made responsible for the action of individuals. The Samoan government, however, by its action undoubtedly burdened his government with such a responsibility. The contrast between the attitude of the consul and of the government is shown by the white book and therefore is easily explained."

The Cologne Gazette, violently attacking the Freisinnige Press, repeats the demand for punishment or extradition of the American, Klein, as a common criminal. The North German Gazette publishes a map of Upolu, one of the Samoan islands, a study of which, it declares, leaves no doubt of the preponderance of German interests in Samoa.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Times Berlin correspondent says: "At the dinner given by Prince Bismarck to the members of the lower house of the Prussian diet on Friday the chancellor said he regarded it as an utter impossibility that the Samoan question should have the effect of interrupting those friendly relations between Germany and America which had existed for a century."

The geographical situation of Samoa and the imperfection of telegraphic communication rendered it impossible for him to be responsible for all the acts of German agents in the Pacific, but the parties in the dispute were animated by the best spirit, and no doubt Germany's commercial interests would not materially suffer.

Davis Will Repudiate Pigott's Story. LONDON, Feb. 25.—It is believed that additional documents have been sent from Dublin to London to be used in the further cross-examination of Pigott. Davis will repudiate the alleged interview with Pigott, two French students proving that Davis ejected Pigott.

With reference to the developments before the Parnell commission the Daily News says it is hard to be kept upon the single topic of which everybody is thinking and speaking. Regarding Mr. Parnell the News says: "If he clears his character Englishmen will remember the patient dignity, gentle forbearance and unflinching courage with which the greatest living Irishman has borne himself under a storm of calumny which would have broken many a brave spirit. He will forever rank among the most devoted, sagacious, loyal and unselfish statesmen that ever steered a country through storm and peril to honor and safety. Nor will the names of Walpole and Egan go without their due meed of praise."

Charged with Killing Her Husband. NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Emma Cordes, a West Indian, has been arrested on the charge of murdering her husband, a German, in a quarrel last night at their house. It is said the woman hurled an earthenware platter at her husband, falling him on the floor. Cordes died soon afterward. Witnesses assert that Emma kicked him brutally as he lay on the floor senseless. The woman denies it, but the body was horribly mutilated.

Flight of a Cashier. CINCINNATI, Ohio, Feb. 25.—C. H. Williams, general cashier of the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis and Erie railroads, has been missing since Wednesday. The traveling auditors of the two roads began to examine his accounts last Tuesday. It is rumored that he is $20,000 short. He is supposed to be in company and Fidelity and Casualty company of New York, are his bondsmen.

Valuable Gold Mine Discovered. ISHPEMING, Mich., Feb. 25.—Finn Bros. of Grayling, Mich., working on prospects north of the Michigan mine Saturday struck gold ten feet from the surface. The gold is in quartz in nuggets, and from a few pounds of rock a gold button worth $136 was melted. The first prospect on which quartz carrying gold in wonderful amount has been found.

Paris.—M. Laguerre is traveling and speaking in the interior of Boulangism preparatory to Gen. Boulanger's visit in the summer. He has been received everywhere with enthusiasm.

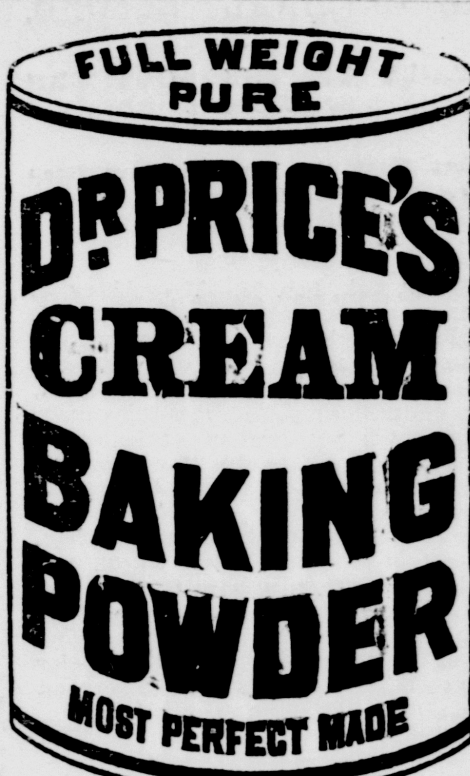

A Narrow Escape. Col. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, came home one evening, feeling a peculiar tightness in the chest. Before retiring, he tried to draw a long breath but found it almost impossible. He suffered four days from pneumonia, and the doctors gave him up. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to-day. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by F. Shaver & Co.

Spring Disorders
Shattered nerves, tired brain, impure blood, debilitated system, all are the natural outcome in the Spring. A medicine must be used, and nothing equals Paine's Celery Compound. We let others praise us—you can't help believing a disinterested party.
Bridger-General W. L. Greenleaf, Burlington, Vt., writes: "I have used Paine's Celery Compound on several occasions, and always with benefit. Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I commenced taking it. Two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring medicine I do not know of its equal."
"I have used two bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound, and it has given entire satisfaction as an appetizer and blood purifier."
T. L. BENNER, Watertown, Dakota.
Paine's Celery Compound
Is prescribed by physicians, recommended by druggists, endorsed by ministers, praised by users, and guaranteed by the manufacturers, as a spring medicine which will do all that is claimed for it. Use it this spring, and see how quickly it tones you up.
Full accounts of wonderful cures made by Paine's Celery Compound after other medicines failed, and the best physicians had failed, sent free. There's nothing like it.

THE CRIMINAL RECORD.
DETAILS OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC EXPRESS ROBBERY.
Report That the Thieves Have Been Overtaken and One of Them Captured—A Policeman Succides.
TULARE, Cal., Feb. 25.—The robbery of the express train on the Southern Pacific road Friday night and the brutal murder of two of the passengers has caused intense excitement throughout Southern California, and a most determined effort is being made to capture the perpetrators of the crime. No valuable clue has thus far been obtained, however, and it is feared that the robbers will escape.
The robbery was committed near Pixley. As the train pulled out of that city it was boarded by five men, who had given out when the train had run about three miles. Three of the men crawled over the tender and, presenting rifles at the engineer and fireman, compelled them to stop the train. As soon as the train came to a standstill John Kelley, the messenger for the Wells-Fargo express, opened the door of his car to see what the trouble was. He was ordered to get back, and did so, barring the door and preparing to defend himself. A little later Kelley was ordered to open the door. He refused, and a bomb was exploded under it. This alarmed the messenger and he threw open the door. One of the robbers crawled in with a gun and compelled him to open the safe. After securing what plunder they could find the robbers ordered the engineer, fireman and messenger to turn their backs to them, and as they did so the three disappeared in the darkness.
After the disappearance of the robbers it was found that Charles Gabert and a deputy constable named Delano, who had descended from the train to see what was going on, were shot and killed.
As soon as the report of the robbery had reached this place a special car with a dozen officers set out for the scene. A pool of fresh blood was found where one of the robbers had met his death. There were indications that horses had been attached to a telegraph pole near where the crime was committed and it is believed that the robbers were mounted.
Two tramps, who were found near the scene of the tragedy, said that they saw and talked with two men who boarded the train and carried off a large amount of money. They said they were both heavily armed, but said they did not know the names of the robbers. They disappeared on the train and were not seen by the tramps again until the evening station, about three miles out, was reached. Here a third man was seen, and he was followed by the police. Owing to the confusion that followed the tramps claim that they can not tell what happened or how many bandits there were.
A man who was riding on the baggage car said: "When the train stopped just beyond Pixley I discovered that there was trouble and jumped off. When they commenced shooting I ran and jumped a wire fence and lay down in a field near by. I heard some one say: 'My God! I am killed!' The shooting occurred and then I heard an explosion of some kind. When the robbers had gone I slipped out and got among the passengers. One man who was shot had his side torn all to pieces with buckshot. The train backed up to Pixley, when one of the passengers who I saw was a man full at a distance from the train. The train went back and we searched for the man. We soon found him. He had evidently been instantly killed. The shot entered his back and he had a ticket in his pocket for Poso."
The officials of the road say that only $300 was secured by the robbers, but some of the passengers claim to have given out that between $50,000 and $60,000 was obtained. A lot of horses have been shipped to Pixley and over two hundred men are searching the country for the bandits.
LATER—A dispatch received from Bakerfield says that the robbers have been overtaken by the officers who were in pursuit, and one of the former was killed and one captured alive.

EDMONT OUTLAW CAPTURED.
Ed McMeriot, "King of the Moonshiners," Caught After a Desperate Fight.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 25.—Word was received here this morning that Ed McMeriot, known as the "King of the Moonshiners," had been captured after a desperate fight with a sheriff's posse. McMeriot came to this State from Tennessee eight or ten days ago. He had been named as being running illicit stills in the mountain fastness of northern Arkansas. He has been repeatedly arrested, but has always escaped, on one of two occasions breaking jail or overpowering the guards. Not long ago Constable Lawson attempted to arrest him, and the officer was forced to plead for his life. Yesterday Sheriff Lawrence and Officers Lawson, Dreyer and Weir captured McMeriot. To a sheriff which he made a rendezvous for certain of his followers. McMeriot appeared in the doorway and responded to the demand "to throw up his hands" by firing a pistol at Lawson and retreating into the house. The officers bombarded the dwelling, sending volley after volley from shotguns and Winchester rifles through the doors and windows. McMeriot ran out and attempted to reach a thicket of underbrush, but the officers followed, firing after him as he ran. He showed fight to the last, shooting several times at the posse, and killing only when his pistol was shot from his hand and his body punctured with buckshot. He was carried to the Yellowville jail, where three physicians were employed for some hours extracting shot and dressing the wounds. It is said he will recover.
None of the posse was fatally wounded. The fight was the most bitter that ever occurred in the mountain region. The officers claim that the capture of McMeriot will break up the moonshiners in that section, he being a recognized leader.

AN OFFICER'S DESPERATE DEED.
Policeman Schille Kills Himself in Milwaukee with His Own Revolver.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 25.—Patrolman Louis Schille shot himself at his home, 679 Fifteenth street, this morning, the bullet lodging in his brain. Nothing could be done for the unfortunate man and he died soon after. He went home last night and behaved in a very peculiar manner. He had been in the house but a short time when he began to grow violent, and finally pulled a pistol from his pocket with the evident intention of taking his own life. His young wife struggled with him, got the weapon away and hid it in a drawer.
Schille kept getting worse, and finally the frightened woman ran for aid to a grocer named Volz. Volz, instead of getting the man to bed and when he was lying quietly left the house. Shortly after he had gone Schille rose up in bed and, calling his wife, said: "Where's that revolver?" She said it was put away, and he said he could not rest till he knew it was safe, and to quiet him she showed where she had put it. About 9 o'clock, when Mrs. Schille supposed her husband was resting quietly, she was horrified to hear a pistol shot, and rushing into the bedroom she found her husband was not there. Then she heard faint moans from an adjoining room, but found that the door had been shut and bolted. There was no way but to force the door. Running for assistance she found two men, who came and broke into the room. Schille lay on the floor in a pool of blood, a bullet hole in his head above the right ear showing where the revolver had been discharged. He remained unconscious all night and died.

STOLE THE STAMPS.
Thieves Invade the Internal Revenue Department and Secure $4,000.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—There is considerable excitement just now in the Treasury Department, where, it is asserted, another robbery has occurred.
It is said that Tuesday, when the contents of the vault which contained the internal revenue stamps were examined, the vault's appearance was such as to excite suspicion; that a great hubbub thereupon occurred in the internal-revenue office, and more particularly in the stamp division; that a more thorough investigation revealed the fact that tobacco stamps to the value of some $4,000 had been stolen. The complex system of checks and counter-checks, and record of these stamps, both as regards those shipped away and those remaining on hand, is thought sufficient to preclude the possibility that the missing stamps have been either lost or mislaid. As the stamps can be readily sold at an exceedingly small discount by the thieves, the amount taken represents the same amount of money as their face value. As it was ascertained that the missing stamps had not been temporarily mislaid, but had evidently been taken with felonious intent, orders were issued to delay the departure of certain employees, who were suspected of being concerned in these heroic measures, it appears, failed to afford any clue, either to the missing stamps or the identity of the thieves; and to date no clue to the lost or stolen property has been discovered. The administration of the internal revenue office of the treasurer by Commissioner Joseph H. Miller, and Chief Clerk John D. Bidwell, has been looked upon as one of the most satisfactory in the treasury department, but it is now charged by those who should possess accurate knowledge in the premises that this is not the first theft of the kind perpetrated in this bureau, and that revenue stamps to the value of some $2,000 were abstracted some months ago, but the matter was carefully and successfully hushed up.

THE CASUALTY RECORD.
Horrible Result of the Derailment of a Train Near Hoyt's Station, Maine.
BANGOR, Maine, Feb. 25.—A messenger reached Kingmans, Maine, this morning, and telegraphed to the Maine Central people here that an accident had occurred on the European & North American railroad near Hoyt's station, and that a wrecking and relief train were needed. These were dispatched at once.
Later reports indicate that the accident is a serious one. It is said that the up-river train was derailed near Hoyt's station, and was badly wrecked, knocking down telegraph poles and destroying all communications except by messenger. It is reported that the fireman and engineer and a postal clerk named William Mulgrett were killed; and that quite a number of people are injured. At the office of the Maine Central railroad, which controls the European & North American line, the officials have little to say, although admitting that an accident has occurred.
The accident is said to have been caused by the engine toppling over while crossing a switch. The baggage, mail and passenger cars were derailed, and several passengers were injured, one probably fatally. Payson Tucker, general manager of the Maine Central railroad, has gone to the scene of the accident in a special car.

BIG FIRE IN BUFFALO.
Flames Break Out in the Business Portion of the City.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Shortly after 12 o'clock the regular business of a saloon corner of Dayton street and the Lackawanna railroad tracks was surprised by seeing his family rush downstairs, crying out that the place was on fire.
The fire started in the rear of the saloon, by the binding smoke, and the flames began pouring out in all directions, an alarm was sent out and streams were soon sent to the place. The fire was caused by a stiff breeze from the harbor, the flames caught on Weppner's large packing-house establishment and then started and spread in all directions. The firemen fought hard. Reinforcements arriving in time made it possible to confine the fire to the saloon, pork-house, and the Buffalo printing ink house. The loss will be large, but can not yet be estimated.

ROASTED HIMSELF TO DEATH.
"Old Man" Hanson Smoked His Pipe in Bed with Fatal Results.
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Edward Hanson met with a horrible death in Lake View Saturday morning. In a fire, which destroyed the house he lived in, he was burned to death. Hanson lived alone in a small cottage at Baxter and School streets. The house was discovered to be on fire by a neighbor, who summoned the fire department. The flames were soon distinguished with small damage to the property. Some one in the crowd attracted by the blaze remarked that "Old Man" Hanson slept in the house and had not been seen. A search of his room failed to find his body. His pipe lay by his side and it is supposed he set fire to the bed covering while smoking. The room where he lay was the only one in the house that contained any furniture, and it had only the bed and an old chair.

WRECKED BY A BROKEN RAIL.
About Fifteen Passengers Injured on a Pennsylvania Road.
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 25.—A north-bound passenger train from the Northern Central railroad was thrown from the track by a broken rail near Ralston last night. About fifteen passengers were injured, none of them seriously.
Conductor William Dale is supposed to be fatally injured. One car rolled down an embankment, turning over twice in its descent. The passengers suffered intensely from the cold during the delay caused by the accident.

Henry McShane, Bell Founder, Dead.
BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 25.—Henry McShane, senior member of the firm of Henry McShane & Co., bell and brass founders of this city, died Saturday, aged 67.
Their Business Booming.
Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Frank Shere & Co.'s drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is so much enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. For coughs by buying, by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

A Warning to Poets.
Poets who submit their verses in person to magazine editors want to look a little out. Some fellow has invented a new "magazine gun" containing ten or twelve cartridges and warranted to be more destructive than any other similar weapon in the market. Such a gun in the magazine editor's hands doesn't give the poet much chance to get down stairs and around the next corner.

Last Year Louisiana Produced 450,000,000 Feet of Lumber, an Increase of 800 per cent since 1889.
Promptness.
First a cold then a cough, then consumption, then death. "I feel Dr. Ackerly's English Remedy for Consumption the moment I began to cough, and I believe it saved my life."—WALTER N. WALLACE, Washington. PRENTICE & EVENSON, druggists.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.
SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESSIONAL HALLS.
Lively Work at the Close of the Session—Report of the Director of the Mint.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The House met at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, but there was a very small attendance of members when that hour arrived.
Under the order made Friday, the Speaker was proceeding to recognize members to call up measures by unanimous consent, but the spirit of filibustering was abroad, and Mr. Hand, of Missouri, submitted a motion for a recess of thirty minutes.
Mr. Gear of Iowa raised the point of order that the true intent of the special order was that no dilatory motions should be admitted. The Speaker, however, received the motion.
The tellers took their places and patiently awaited the appearance of a quorum. Mr. Sayers of Texas asked consent that the special order be taken so as to enable the House to proceed with the consideration of the deficiency bill, but Mr. Buchanan of New Jersey objected, remarking that all the ceremonies should be adhered to.
Then Mr. Burrows of Michigan, saying that it was perfectly apparent that no business could be transacted under the special order between the hours of 10 and 11, asked unanimous consent to modify that order so that it would merely provide for the meeting of the House at 10 o'clock. The tellers resumed their places until 11 o'clock; when Mr. Hand withdrew his motion for a recess.
On motion of Mr. Peck of Ohio, the Senate bill was taken up, and the conference with the House on the bill of the Indians for the purpose of opening to settlement the unassigned lands in the Indian Territory ceded by the Creeks to the United States.
On motion of Mr. Cox of New York, the Senate amendments were concurred in to the House bill for the taking of the eleventh census. The principal objections are those extending the scope of the inquiry as to the number of soldiers and sailors and their widows, and to provide for the payment of bounties on the negroes, mulattoes, quadroons and octoroons, and for ascertaining the recorded indebtedness of private corporations and individuals.
The House then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Dockery of Missouri in the chair, on the deficiency bill.
On motion of Mr. Herbert of Alabama an amendment was adopted appropriating $150,000 to supply a deficiency in the appropriation for the Bureau of Construction and Repair for the Navy.
Mr. Bingham of Pennsylvania offered an amendment appropriating $2,000,000 to reimburse A. O. Hancock for the expenses incurred by him in his capacity as a member of the committee on the part of the Bureau of Construction and Repair for the Navy.
The Senate.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Among the petitions and memorials referred was one by telegram from the fourth encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Texas, assembled at Fort Worth, asking that at least one-half of Oklahoma be reserved for entry and settlement by old soldiers of the Union, without their being subject to the existing homestead law, requiring entry and cultivation within three years.
Mr. Hear moved to proceed to the consideration of his resolution as to election outrages.
Mr. Harris demanded the yeas and nays. Mr. Sausbury appealed to Mr. Hear not to insist upon his motion, "as it must be very apparent." But the rest of the sentence was cut off by a demand from Mr. Hear for the regular business of the day.
The motion was agreed to—yeas 26, nays 22 (in party vote), and the resolution was taken up.

GOLD AND SILVER PRODUCTION.
Report of the Director of the Mint for the Year 1888.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The report of the director of the mint for 1888 shows that the production of the United States for the year was 1,844,927 ounces, valued at $33,150,000, and of silver 45,783,632 fine ounces of the commercial value of about $2,000,000, and of gold, containing value of $9,195,000. In addition some 10,000,000 ounces of silver were extracted in the United States from foreign ores and bullion, principally Mexican. The total reduced to the United States was in gold 1,777,877 fine ounces, and of silver 53,128,693 fine ounces. The average price of silver during the year was about 94 cents. At this price the bullion value of the silver contained in the silver dollar was 72.6.
The Government purchased 28,920,398 standard ounces of silver during the year, costing $4,091,340, at an average price of 94 cents per fine ounce. The total amount of silver purchased for the coinage of the silver dollar since March 1, 1878, has been 275,007,939 standard ounces, costing $266,000,445, an average price of $1.05 per fine ounce or 96.7 per standard ounce.
The value of the gold deposited at the mints during the year, not including re-deposits, was $11,496,146, including re-deposits, $18,724,988. The foreign material comprised in this was $7,055,046. The amount of silver deposited and purchased was $35,512,789 standard ounces of the coinage value of $41,323,973, exclusive of re-deposits.
The coinage of the mints during the calendar year 1888, was as follows: Gold, $31,380,988; silver dollars, $31,990,883; subsidiary silver, $1,043,773; minor, $212,201; total, $65,318,644. The foreign material bars were manufactured at the mints containing gold of the value of $21,650,798, and silver $1,635,490.
The value of gold bullion and coin was $11,031,941 and the export, $34,619,697, a loss by export of $23,587,736. The import of silver was $21,592,062 and the export, $20,895,322, a loss by export of $698,740. The metallic stock of the United States Jan. 1, 1889, including bullion in the mints awaiting coinage, is estimated to have been: Gold, $105,001,953; silver, $409,379,590; total, $514,381,543.
The stock of coined and paper money in circulation Jan. 1, 1889, was $1,236,106,154, against $1,376,930,093 on Jan. 1, 1888, an increase of $139,174,151. The increase in the consumption of gold and silver in the industries in the United States during the calendar year 1888 to have been, gold, $14,600,000; silver, $3,250,000.

No Extra Session.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Sunday Capital says that a rumor, which has received a letter from Gen. Harrison, that it is stated that there will not be an extra session of the Fifty-first Congress called. As other members of Congress claim to have a sentence of a similar character it seems to be conclusive in regard to the subject.

Terrible Forewarnings.
Cough in the morning, hoarse or difficult breathing, rising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Ackerly's English Remedy for Consumption will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.
